

Pizza Works Newsletter – October 2005

Dear Friends,

The trees turn shades of orange and red. The nights are cooler, the garden dies back. Leaves rustle and swirl. Apple trees drop their fruit in the wind. Pumpkins are piled high, on display for jack o lantern carving. Halloween is around the corner.

I remember running home after school, nose cold and sniffing. A mug of hot chocolate would thaw me and warm my hands. A special treat was soup, veggie sticks and grilled cheese sandwiches for dinner; when you bit into it, cheese would ooze out the sides. Now whenever I smell pizza fresh from the oven, I think of the wonderful hot stretchy cheese. Yum.

Pizza makes easy and delicious finger food for a Halloween party and the toppings can vary to please the crowd. Pizza can be a healthy after school snack. A gourmet pizza can serve as a quick contribution to a potluck dinner; big favorites are the Mediterranean or the Spinach Delight: lots of veggies but high in flavor! Call ahead and we will have it ready for you or deliver it to your door. We officially start deliveries 4PM and we often have a driver available for mid-day deliveries.

EDNA'S CORNER

Dear Friends of Pizza Works,

I don't know about you – but I am glad September is over. It seemed like the faster I went the more behind I got. I am ready to settle down into Fall mode and get ready for winter. With the weather changing don't forget to check smoke alarms, propane or charcoal for your grills- that way when the lights go out you can at least cook a warm meal for your family. Our pizzas are great on the grill. Don't forget flashlights!!

A quick up date on Sherri - she is alive and well! Surgery was a success. She is back walking and driving. She is now ready to enjoy her retirement. She says to tell you all Hi from her- she misses seeing you but not working!!

Lindsey is back from New Orleans going to school in Seattle. She will be going back to New Orleans as soon as the college opens again.

Just a reminder we haven't gotten back to many of your birthdays- we would love to give you a free MINI pizza to say Happy Birthday and Thanks for being a loyal customer.

That's all for this month—hope to see you soon!!!!
